•Jens Schovsbo, LL.D., Ph.D., was born in 1965 and is professor of intellectual property law (IPR) at the Centre for Information and Innovation Law (CIIR) (www.ciir.dk/English). He is the author or co-author of several monographs on IPR and has published extensively in Danish, Scandinavian, and international law journals primarily on IPR. His ph.d.-thesis from 1996 dealt with IPR and competition law and his doctoral thesis from 2001 with IPR and contract law. He has taught at a number of foreign universities including universities in Scandinavia, China (Renmin and Shang Dong), Europe and the U.S. He was a visiting professor at the University of San Diego, School of Law in 2008/2009. He is a member of the Danish and Domain Name Panel and the Danish Board of Appeal for patents, trademarks and designs. He is a member of the board of the Danish Association for the Protection of Industrial Property Rights (AIPPI) and has been the chairman of the Practice Committee for Good Scientific Conduct at the University of Copenhagen. He was President of the International Association for the Advancement of Teaching and Research in Intellectual Property (ATRIP) from 2019 - 2022. He is the chairman of the Scientific Advisory Board for the Max Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition in Munich. Also he is a member of several editorial boards. In his recent research he focuses on general aspects of international IPR, design law and on the relationship between IPR and competition law and contracts.
