

The welfare state and crime

- connecting research and practice

KEYWORDS:

Research, teaching, and practice integration in criminology and crime prevention – especially youth crime and restorative justice

Teaching and facilitation of relational and restorative processes and conflict management

Youth and family involvement

Cultural understanding, cross-cultural collaboration, and mutual integration promotion

Project and change management in a municipal context

Robust, personal guidance and mentoring for vulnerable youth

Work experience from the Middle East (Iran) and Africa (East Africa)

EMPLOYMENTS:

Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen (2023-)

Postdoc, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen (2020-2023)

Special consultant, The Crime Prevention Unit, Albertslund Municipality (2016-)

Co-financed position with the University of Copenhagen.

Crime prevention strategies in the schools and the municipality at large, restorative practice.

PhD Stipendiate, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen (2015-2020)

Personal investigator (personundersøger), Probation Services (Kriminalforsorgen) (2016)

Youth Consultant, Rudersdal Municipality (2010-2016)

Crime prevention, marginalised youth, restorative practice.

External lecturer and study coordinator, Center for Middle East Studies, SDU (2009-2013)

Teacher, social sciences etc., Isterødskolerne (boarding school and folk school) (2008-2010)

Research assistant, DIIS (Danish Institute for International Studies) (2008)

Responsible for producing research papers on Iran

Substitute teacher, Gentofte Municipality (2005-2006)

Internship, Care International, Uganda (2005)

EDUCATION:

PhD in Law (2020), Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen.

Accepted June 15th, 2020. Supervisor: Lars Holmberg

Cand. Scient. Soc. (2007) in International Development Studies, Roskilde University and Sociology of Religion, University of Copenhagen