

The Eyes and Ears of Power

Surveillance, History, and Privacy

Thursday, 13th September 2018 08:00 – 18:15

Friday, 14th September 2018 09:00-14:30

CORA, ENIGMA, The department of Information Studies, and The Danish Research Foundation Centre for Privacy Studies

The Faculty of Law

Rooms: Auditorium 4A-0-69, Room 4A.0.68 and 4A.0.56,

University of Copenhagen, South Campus, Njalsgade 76, DK-2300 Copenhagen S, Denmark

PROGRAMME

Thursday September 13

Time	Programme
08:00 – 09:00	Arrival and registration. Coffee & light breakfast In front of the Auditorium 4A-0-69
09:00 – 09:15	Welcome Henrik Stevnsborg Auditorium 4A-0-69
09:15 – 10:30	Keynote 1 Chair: Laura Skouvig Dr. Toni Weller, De Montfort University, Leicester: The Historical Ubiquity of Surveillance, Auditorium 4A-0-69
10:30 – 11:00	Break Coffee & Tea
	Room 4A.0.68	4A.0.56
11:00 – 12:30	Technology 1 Chair: Henrik Stevnsborg Sara Martos: Surveillance Societies: Challenges of Privacy and Data Protection in the Criminal Investigation in the European Union. Marta Martins : Media Narratives of Transnational Criminal Cases: Performing Notions of Borders.	Privacy and Surveillance in Early Modern Europe Chair: Mette Birkedal Bruun Helle Vogt/Pernille Knudsen: Surveillance and Vagrancy in Copenhagen 1500-1800 Anni Haahr Henriksen: Eyes of Powers in 16th-century Westminster Natália da Silva Perez: Sexual Surveillance in Versailles under Louis XIV

12:30 – 13:30	Lunch
	Room 4A.0.68	4A.0.56
13:30 – 15:00	The Inner Enemy Chair: Sanne Aagaard Jensen Iben Björnsson: Being the State: Social Democracy, Anti-Communism and Security Services during the Cold War. Wouter Klem: Progress and Restraint: Transnational Policing of the Anarchist Conspiracy in the 1890s. Mika Suonpää: The Circulation of Ideas of Surveillance Practices in the Baltic Sea Region during the Mid-1920s.	Governmentality & Barracks Chair: Karen Grova Sjøilen Matt Allen: Surveillance and Reform in Theory and Practice: Policing a Convict Colony, New South Wales, 1788-1809. Vittoria Princi: Military Barracks and Public Order in Napoleonic Italy. Álvaro Benedicto Pérez Sancho: Instruments of Knowledge and Subjects of Surveillance in the Peninsular Periphery of the Hispanic Monarchy: The Case of the Kingdom of Galicia in the Eighteenth Century. Nan Gerdes; Gendering Surveillance in Early Modern French Literary Imagination
15:00 – 15:15	Break Coffee, tea, and cake
	Room 4A.0.68	4A.0.56
15:15-16:45	Surveillance & Information State Chair: Laura Skouvig Rebecca Robinson: Networks of Surveillance in Early China. Cristina Plamadeala: Dossierreveillance and the politics of fear: the case of Communist Romania (1945-89). Jeannette Greven: Surveillance through Reform: US Assistance to the Palestinian Authority and the 'War on Terror.	World Wars and Surveillance 1 Chair: Andreas Marklund László Somogyi: Internment and Civilian Camps during First World War in Hungary. Tiina Lintunen & Ville Okkonen: Anti-War Socialists under Surveillance of the Finnish State Police during 1935-1944. Elizabeth Bruton: The Lethal Eye in the Sky: The Birth of Airborne Wireless Communications and Near Real-Time Aerial Surveillance in the British Airforces during World War One.

16:45-18:15	Identity, Privacy and Power Chair: Anni Haahr Henriksen Carol-Anne Costabile-Heming: Stasi Informants as Censors: Unofficial Operatives in Publishing Houses, Valentina Glajar: Translation and Surveillance: About Flaws and Glitches and Alison Lewis: 'Sticky Surveillance' and Stasi Informers in the German Democratic Republic in the Cold War Auditorium 4A-0-69
19:30	Conference Dinner (ENIGMA)

Friday September 14

Time	Programme
09:00 – 10:15	Keynote 2 Chair: Andreas Marklund Professor Sébastien-Yves Laurent, Université de Bordeaux-IRM/ Sciences Po Paris-Métis: TBA Auditorium 4A-0-69
10:15 – 10:30	Break Coffee & tea
	Room 4A.0.68	4A.0.56
10:30 – 12:00	Everyday Surveillance Chair: Pernille Ulla Knudsen Sara Ann Sewell: Surveillance on the Assembly Line: Modern Production Techniques at the Stollwerck Chocolate Factory in Cologne, Germany, 1924-1932. Ahmad H Sa'di: State Surveillance through Social Networks: The Case of the Palestinians in Israel, 1948-1970. Barbara Both: The Czechoslovak Underground under the State Security's (ŠtB's) Surveillance.	Technology & Surveillance 2 Chair: Natalia da Silva Perez. Jayabrata Sarkar: 'Secure' Populace, 'Insecure' Rights: The Aadhar Dilemma. Lauren Kilgour: Aesthetics of Surveillance: The History of Electronic Ankle Monitors. Filipa Querirós & Rafaela Granja & Helena Machado: Giving a Face to Crime: Ethical and Social Challenges of Forensic DNA Phenotyping in the EU.
12:00 – 13:30	World Wars and Surveillance 2: A Norwegian outlook Chair: Andreas Marklund , Auditorium 4A-0-69 Nik Brandal: Post War - From Counter Intelligence to Political Policing, 1918-28, Ola Teige: The Norwegian Spy Act of 1914 and the Birth of Norwegian Counter Intelligence 1912-14 and Eirik Brazier: The Immigration Act of 1915 - Defining and Controlling 'The Stranger', 1915-18
13:30 – 14:30	Lunch and goodbye Mette Birkedal Bruun	