About the speakers

Dr. Scott Donald is Director of the Centre for Law, Markets and Regulation, UNSW Law and Justice, UNSW Sydney. Scott joined the Faculty in 2010 after a successful global career in the funds management industry advising governments, superannuation funds, insurance companies and fund managers on investment strategy, governance and regulation. Scott regularly presents at academic, professional and industry conferences in Australia and overseas and publishes in his fields of expertise.

Matthias Narr is Head Engagement International at Ethos since October 2020. He is responsible for the management of Ethos' international dialogue programme and international engagement activities. In addition, he is a member of the Stewardship Advisory Committee of the UN PRI. Before joining Ethos, Matthias Narr worked as an Engagement Specialist in Robeco's Governance and Active Ownership department in the Netherlands.

Julia Anna Bingler is a Doctoral Researcher at the Center of Economic Research at ETH Zurich. Her research focuses on financial climate transition risk analysis, and on corporate climate risk disclosures. Prior to joining ETH, she worked for various academic institutions and think tanks on sustainable finance regulatory approaches and market-based climate policies.
