

SHOC Conference: Carbonfree shipping and shipping carbon - contracts in context

November 10, 2022

Law Faculty, Njalsgade 76, 2300 Copenhagen S

Flexroom, 8A-0-57

08.45-09.15: Coffee and croissants

09.15-09.30: Prof. Vibe Ulfbeck, CEPRI/SHOC, KU: Welcome and setting the scene

Part I: Regional initiatives: The EU ETS system and carbon contracts (Chair: Vibe Ulfbeck)

09.30-09.45: Prof. Ellen Eftestøl, University of Helsinki: Fit for 55 and the ETS system in the maritime sector

09.45-10.00: Prof. Simon Baughen, Swansea University, UK: The ETS system and ETS clauses

10.00-10.15: Attorney at law, Andreas Oxholm, Hafnia Law Firm: Contracts for carbon trading

10.15-10.30: Discussion

10.30-10.45: Coffee break

Part II: International initiatives and the BIMCO contract clauses (Chair: Ellen Eftestøl)

10.45-11.00: Prof. Michael Tsimplis, City University of Hong Kong: From MARPOL to contracts

11.00-11.15: Stinne Taiger Ivø, Director for Contracts & Support, BIMCO: Overview of BIMCO's standard EEXI, ETSA and CII clauses

11.15-11.30: Prof. Stephen Girvin, Centre for Maritime Law, NUS: EEXI and CII in Charterparties

11.30-11.45: Sophia Hong Cai and Malthe Hersom Kløft, Bech Bruun Law Firm: Contractual consequences of EEXI and CII under existing time charter parties

11.45-12.00: Discussion

12.00-13.00: LUNCH

Part III: Alternative models and enforcement issues (Chair: Stephen Girvin)

13.00-13.15: Attorney Rachael Hoyland, Hill Dickinson LLP, UK: An advisor's experience and the Chancery Lane project

13.15-13.30: Dr. Jolien Kruit, Van Traa Law firm, NL: The contractual architecture of the “Blue Visby Solution”

13.30-13.45: PhD fellow, Vincenzo Battistella, CEPRI/SHOC, KU: Port state control as a possible mechanism for ensuring compliance with green requirements?

13.45-14.00: Post doc., Asli Arda, CEPRI/SHOC, KU: Enforcement of environmental targets through financing contracts

14.00-14.15: Business Development & Funding Manager, Kiki Larsen, Mærsk Mc-Kinney Møller Center for Zero Carbon Shipping: Introducing a transdisciplinary collaboration model

14.15 -14.30: Discussion

14.30-14.45: Coffee break

Part IV: Shipping carbon (Chair: Asli Arda)

14.45-15.00: Søren G Nielsen, Blue Water Shipping: The Greensand project and supply ships

15.00-15.15: Assistant professor Max Usynin, CEPRI/SHOC, KU: Carbon carriage and dangerous goods

15.15-15.30: Senior Vice President, Krester Krøger Kjær, SKULD: Insurance perspectives

15.30-15.45: Discussion

15.45-16.00: Coffee break

Part V: Storing carbon at sea (Chair: Maxim Usynin)

16.00-16.15: Niels Schovsbo, GEUS (Geological Survey of Denmark and Greenland): Storing carbon at sea

16.15-16.30: Prof. Yoshifumi Tanaka, CEPRI/SHOC KU: Environmental Obligations to Regulate Oceanic Carbon Storage in International Law

16.30-16.45: Associate professor Carola Glinski, CEPRI/SHOC, KU: Carbon storage at sea from a waste law perspective

16.45-17.00: Discussion

Wrap Up: (Vibe Ulfbeck)

End of conference and drinks

19.00: Speakers’ dinner in town

