

The Russia-Ukraine Conflict Under International Law

Tuesday, 19 April 2022 09:15 – 15:30 CEST

Virtual event (Zoom link will be notified upon registration)

Organized by: The Center for European and Comparative Legal Studies (CECS).

This virtual event will explore the Russia-Ukraine conflict providing insights into a range of applicable international legal aspects.

PROGRAMME

Each presentation will last 30 minutes with time at the end for questions from the audience. Please use the chat function to pose questions.

Time	Programme
09:15 – 09:30	Welcome Aloka Wanigasuriya, PhD Fellow and Research Assistant, Center for European and Comparative Legal Studies, University of Copenhagen
09:30 – 10:15	The Russia-Ukraine Conflict: Enforcement of International Law through UN Institutions Professor with Special Responsibilities Dr. Astrid Kjeldgaard-Pedersen, iCourts, University of Copenhagen

Time	Programme
10:15 – 11:00	The Russia-Ukraine Conflict: Peace Negotiations, Sanctions and Diplomacy Associate Professor Dr. Mykola Gnatovskyy, Institute of International Relations, Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv
11:00 – 11:15	Break
11:15 – 12:00	The Evolution of Ukraine's Approach to Conflict-Related Violations since 2014 Dr. Kateryna Busol, Senior Lecturer, National University of Kyiv-Mohyla Academy
12:00 – 12:45	National Dimensions of the Documentation, Investigation and Prosecution of Grave Breaches of International Law Associate Professor Dr. Dmytro Koval, National University of Kyiv-Mohyla Academy
12:45 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 14:45	Herding Cats? Making sense of the Justice Actors in Ukraine Mark Kersten, Fellow, Researcher and Consultant, Munk School of Global Affairs and Public Policy, University of Toronto
14:45 – 15:30	Ukraine vs Russia: Parallel Proceedings and the Implications of Russia's Exclusion from the Council of Europe Dr. Gaiane Nuridzhanian, Senior Lecturer, National University of Kyiv Mohyla Academy